A woman with dark hair, wearing a light-colored towel, is sitting on the edge of a white bathtub. She is looking out a window with white curtains, her hands raised behind her head. The bathtub has a chrome faucet and a handheld showerhead. The floor is covered in a patterned tile, and there is a potted plant in the background.

A woman with long dark hair is shown from the chest up, standing in a shower. She is looking up and smiling, with her eyes closed, enjoying the water. The showerhead is a large, square, stainless steel unit mounted on the ceiling. It has a grid of small nozzles and a blue LED light strip along its bottom edge. Several streams of water are falling from the showerhead. The background is a glass shower door with a grid pattern and some blurred lights.
